

W. P. WALTON.

The Boston Herald remarks: "Believing that Mr. Blaine would be a bad and dangerous President, we hope to see him defeated. Believing him to be a weak candidate, we expect to see him defeated." The New York Post says: "That Mr. Blaine can not be elected we look on as certain. Whether he can be defeated without ruining the organization which is being promoted in the service of his selfish ambition remains to be seen." A number of other influential papers speak more or less strongly against Blaine, but the New York Sun is not carried away with that kind of literature and suggests that the democratic party can not afford to indulge in any illusions as to the kind of campaign they are going to have this year. Because a number of republicans in Massachusetts and New York refuse to support Blaine it must not be supposed that on that account the democrats are sure of defeating him. The defection in Massachusetts is not likely to be great enough to make that State democratic. The defection in New York has yet to show itself in significant proportions in the strong republican districts.

Discussing the nomination of Blaine, Puck says: "The curve is coming upon us, and the great party that has so long guided the nation may now indeed set its house in order and prepare for the end; and the end is close at hand. And now, what remains for us to do, who feel the indignity that has been put upon us? There is only one course to take, and the conscience of the plainest man may tell him what that is. To swear in our own souls that, whatever may be the noise and ridicule of those who can take their disgrace lightly, we will fight by vote, by argument, by speech and by writing, by all fair and honest means, against the consummation of the wrong that is proposed by those who would put James Blaine into the chair of Abraham Lincoln. And if the great party must die, let it die under the daggers of its own sons, who kill it to save it from the worst dishonor."

The law says "A judgment of conviction shall be reversed for any error of law, appearing on the record, when, upon a consideration of the whole case, the Court is satisfied that the substantial rights of the defendant have been prejudiced thereby." Does it look like Tom Crittenden's rights were prejudiced, when a jury, which ought to have said he must hang, gave him only eight years in the penitentiary? or of Snapp, who stole thousands of dollars from the city of Louisville, and goes clear because he was prosecuted for larceny instead of embezzlement? The Court of Appeals, by its mad desire to free every criminal even on the slightest technicality, is getting lower all the time in public estimation and it is no wonder a judge is occasionally cowed or shot down.

The New York Sun comes out strongly for Bayard, as the most available candidate. It does not think there can be any trouble about his speech at the beginning of the war. It was simply an appeal against a resort to war for the coercion of the rebellious States and a plea for treating with them in the interest of peace. These were the views held by many leading men of that day, whose loyalty to the Union has never been questioned. As to his speech advocating the payment by the government for slaves freed from loyal masters, it strikes us that it was a plea only for common honesty. Hurrah for Bayard!

LAWYERS tell us that there is scarcely any similarity between the Grove Kennedy case and that of Tom Crittenden, upon which Judge Hargis predicates his alleged opinion in the latter case. The whole thing reads like it was written by an attorney for Crittenden striving hard to make a special pleading in his favor, instead of being the emanation of the highest judicial officer in the State. One lawyer who had read the decision remarked to us that there were sufficient grounds in it to impeach Mr. Hargis, who delivered it.

Mosses, who cut such fantastic tricks as carpet-bag Governor of South Carolina, just after the war, is again in duceville. Last year he spent a considerable portion of his precious time in a jail in New York for obtaining money under false pretenses. Still on the make he drifted to Chicago, when the convention met and played the same old game with the same old result. As low as he has shown himself to be, Mosses is but a fair average of the second-rate who oppressed the South just after the war.

ONLY four of the veterans of the war of 1812 were present at the annual reunion at Paris Wednesday and their ages ranged from 87 to 91. It is likely that this is the last meeting they will ever have, as their number is dwindling very fast. Dr. Graham, the oldest of the veterans, was not present, but a letter from him regretting his inability to attend was read. A few more years and the old soldiers of 1812 will be but a memory.

Efforts are being made by the lawyers of Cincinnati to disbar T. C. Campbell, the crooked criminal lawyer, and if half that is told of his ways that are dark and tricks that are vain but true, they can not do it too soon for their own standing in the legal world.

LOGAN went away up to Maine to congratulate Blaine and the two immediately formed a mutual admiration society. It is said that while he is there Logan will get Blaine to run over his letter of acceptance and kill the more distant onslaughts on his mother tongue.

THE Louisville Post must exaggerate when it says that "The Mexican pension bill, which has passed the House, and is now before the Senate, will add over $275,000,000 to the expenditures. It provides that the burden of proof that a soldier was disabled in Government service shall be transferred from the applicant to the Government, it being taken as prima facie evidence that admission to the service was a guarantee to soundness. This will add to the pension roll some 75,000 claimants, whose cases are now suspended."

CLEVELAND is deservedly a weak candidate among democrats, because he has followed his own selfish purpose by undertaking to rule without regard to the party which made him Governor; and all the republican kickers in the world could not make up for the democratic votes he might lose if he were the candidate. If quality is what we look for, Byard is infinitely preferable, and if availability be the test, there is, in our judgment, a vast advantage in taking Bayard.—[N. Y. Sun.]

THE objection to Mr. Blaine is that he is an unprincipled and dangerous demagogue, who represents in an eminent degree, the aims and methods in government and in politics which the conscientious voters are determined to have reformed. The party deliberately challenged the fealty of its best members, and rebuffed the independents, when it nominated him. It must now pay the penalty of its indiscretion and audacity.—[Boston Herald.]

THE Lexington papers are very guarded in their remarks about the courts since the libel suits. Not one of them has added its protest to the late outrageous decisions of the Court of Appeals, which seem to have disgusted everybody but a few toadying Louisville lawyers.

AS usual there was a wrangle in the New York Convention and of a consequence the delegates to the National Convention were sent instructed to vote on all questions as a unit, the majority to decide. It is claimed that Cleveland has three to one of the delegates appointed.

Mr. Blaine receives eighty cents a volume royalty for his book. About 100,000 volumes have already been ordered, so that the writer is sure of $80,000 for his year's work.

IT will be of some comfort for the law-abiding part of the people to know that Judge Thomas F. Hargis has rendered his last decision on the Appellate bench.

A GEORGIA girl wants the Legislature to change her name, which is Quinine. She is afraid if she retains it that she will never change it by getting married, as nobody takes quinine if they can help it.

ANOTHER editor has been elected mayor, Judge W. T. Hanley, of Mt. Sterling. We are glad to note that the offices are beginning to seek good men.

IF Blaine is elected he should make Gail Hamilton Secretary of State. She deserves some recognition at his hands.

FLOWER's little boomer is fading fast. His name will hardly be spoken of, except in fun by the Chicago convention.

THE title "Plumed Knight" was applied to Mr. Blaine in 1876 by Bob Ingersoll.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.

—Fayette contributed 14 convicts to the penitentiary.

—Harper's Weekly is being boycotted by Blaine's friends.

—The Utah bill passed the Senate—33 yeas to 15 nays.

—Blaine has six children—three sons and three daughters.

—Congressman Wm. Springer was re-nominated at Springfield, Ill.

—The Louisiana democrats adopted the Ohio tariff platform and instructed for Tilden.

—The Maine Democratic Convention resolved in favor of Grover Cleveland for President.

—Miss Kate Chisholm, sister of Rev. J. J. Chisholm, was married at Harrodsburg, on the 17th.

—C. C. Morgan, a prominent citizen, was assassinated and robbed near Greensburg, by parties unknown.

—The U. S. grand jury has indicted Jas. D. Fish, John C. Eno and Ferdinand Ward, the Wall Street swindlers.

—The Tennessee democratic convention appointed delegates, but got into a wrangle over the tariff plank of the proposed platform.

—The Louisville Press Club will give a promenade concert at Phoenix Hall, July 16, in which the leading musicians in the city will participate.

—Joseph W. Harper, of Harper & Brothers, has written to the chairman of the New York Republican Committee withdrawing his name as a candidate for elector.

—The republican convention consisted of 820 delegates. The democratic convention will have 18 less, or 802. It will require 534½ votes to nominate, owing to the two thirds rule.

—In regard to the republican boast that Blaine can carry West Virginia the Wheeling Register says it knows men who want to bet that he will be beaten by 15,000 votes in that State.

—Patti has signed an agreement with Col. Mapleson to sing in America next season. She is to receive $4,000 for each concert and all expenses. She receives $8,000 down and $15,000 in October. The agreement moreover calls for security in the sum of $50,000 before she signs.

—Thomas Walling, of Monroe, Ind., who went to California during the gold fever of '49, leaving his wife and three children, returned from the West Tuesday and spent the evening in company with his wife, children and grandchildren. Mrs. Walling had in the meantime married twice, supposing him dead, both husbands dying.

—The Superior Court has adjourned for the summer.

—Season tickets to the Louisville Exposition have been fixed at $8.

—Charles Francis Adams, Jr., has been elected President of the Union Pacific railroad.

—The Georgia democratic delegation will vote for Cleveland and will object to a reopening of the tariff question.

—It turns out that Hon. Hester Clymer's death was caused by morphine taken with suicidal intent on account of financial reverses.

—Matthew Sparks, who resides ten miles from Columbia, has living upon his farm 19 families; 104 children; 18 dogs; 31 cats and 22 horses.—[Spectator.]

—Ben Butler regards the republican ticket as the strongest they could have nominated, but he thinks the democrat can beat it—with the right man.

—Two American and twelve Mexican laborers were killed by the premature explosion of a blast on the Tampico branch of the Mexican Central Railroad.

—Mrs. Sophia Hunter has been arrested at Monee, Ill., for starving into idleness, beating with savage cruelty and maiming in a nameless way her 2-year-old stepson.

—Luke Phipps was hanged at Sandwich, Ont., for the murder of his wife. He did not assert his innocence, neither did he say he was going straight home to heaven.

—John R. Wolfe, son of Capt. Wolfe, Clerk of the Scott County Court, has been placed in the penitentiary at Frankfort, to serve a ten years sentence for forgery.

—The Southern Mutual Insurance Co. is preparing to close business because the Supreme Court has decided that all but $200,000 of its surplus shall be divided.

—The National line steamship America arrived on the 18th from New York making the trip in six days, 14 hours and 18 minutes, the fastest Eastern trip on record.

—James Wilkerson, indicted at Dallas, Texas, for gambling, has compromised by paying a fine of $5,000 and with a promise to do no more gambling in that neighborhood.

—Jim Vandyeke was lodged in jail at Hopkinsville, having been caught at Owensboro, after ten years of hiding. His crime was the killing of Zuck Bristow in a gambling-house.

—General Butler, in response to formal notification of his nomination by the Greenbackers for President, writes a long letter of acceptance, containing his views on the currency principle at issue.

—The House having failed to make an appropriation for the pay of U. S. storekeepers and gaugers, Commissioner Evans has issued an order closing all distilleries and distillery warehouses throughout the country.

—The Senate is up to its chin in a struggle with the new pension movement to which the Chicago platform pledges the republican party. If the bill becomes a law it will take about $300,000,000 to settle all claims under it.

—Carl Schurz, sitting in the Chicago Convention at the time of Blaine's nomination, took his watch from his pocket, and, turning to Gen. Francis B. Row, who sat beside him, said: "Let us note the time when the republican party died."

—Now that Tilden is out of the way Southern delegates will go to Chicago unpledged and uncommitted. It is understood they will in a measure be guided by the opinions of the Northern delegates, especially those from New York, New Jersey and Connecticut.

—Phil Thompson is nursing the Flower boom at Washington. Philip has a little political contract in his own Congressional district which has indications of growing more interesting and absorbing to him than the tender ministrations he is bestowing upon what, after the Chicago convention, will be but a little faded Flower.—[Louisville Times.]

—At Summersville, in Green county, last Saturday, El Laramore and his nephew had a fight, in which Laramore had his head broken with a hatchet, and will die. On the same day a man named Skaggs was shot and killed by his uncle, Devil Jim Skaggs, who was shooting at a moonshine spotter and hit his nephew accidentally.—[Columbia Spectator.]

—The Supreme Court of Ohio sustains, with an immaterial exception, the constitutionality of the Scott law. The decision is that the section of the law providing for the enforcement of the lien on leased premises in case of the non-payment of the tax is unconstitutional; the remainder of the law, as amended by the Legislature last winter, stands intact.

—The Delaware democrats reaffirm their allegiance to the principles enunciated by the party in national conventions in 1876 and '80 and present to the country Thomas Francis Bayard, as a statesman who thro' a long public career has enunciated and illustrated the enduring principles of democratic faith and whose nomination as President would furnish at once a platform and a candidate, and whose election would satisfy the highest aspirations of the American people.

Rev. J. A. Bagle Accepts. Editor Interior Journal. In response to the kindly call in your last issue from friends at Stanford, and to similar solicitations from various quarters, that I should become a candidate for the position of County Superintendent of Common Schools, permit me to thank them for their flattering notice, and to say that I gratefully accept their proposition. Having been for about 40 years a citizen of your county, much of the time a practical teacher, knowing the importance of the position, and having a zeal for the work with ample time for its performance and (confidentially) needing employment, I offer myself for their support. Respectfully, Hustonville, June 18 J. A. BAGLE.

HUSTONVILLE, LINCOLN COUNTY.

—The wheat harvest, which is rapidly approaching, promises to be very good. Corn is growing rapidly, oats said to be better than usual and grass very fine.

—Wm. Wigham sold to Dr. Brown a Jersey cow and calf for about $75. Wigham's apology for the ridiculously low price is that he wished to aid as far as he could in bringing milk into the doctor's family.

—Political questions are not yet exciting any particular interest and there is a probability of a very quiet canvass. One reason for the unusual quiet is found in the fact that we have not been visited by a candidate in several months.

—John S. Good and wife entertained a party of the young folks on Tuesday night with a most delightful treat. The supper is described as being beautiful and elegant. Dancing continued until a late hour and all we have seen, speak in lavish praise of their entertainers.

—George B. Cooper has gone to Parkersburg, W. Va., on business. Mrs. Carpenter is quite ill. Eb Kennedy was in town yesterday in the role of a "water witch." Eb is said to handle the divining rod with deftness and dignity.

—Since the British people have become interested in the financial condition of Gen. Grant, there is a faint hope that domestic gratitude and foreign admiration will conspire to supplement his meagre $16,000 per annum, so far as to enable him to avoid absolute starvation. Several of us, without military training, would be willing to engage in a pitched battle with famine with a backing of $16,000.

Another Call on Rev. J. A. Bagle. Hustonville, June 18, 1884.

REV. J. A. BAGLE.—Seeing a call on you from "Many Voters" of the Standard district to become a candidate for County Superintendent of Common Schools, we desire to add our names and support, and earnestly request you to become a candidate for the same.

FINE—

Lincoln Co. Farm For Sale.

I offer for sale privately my farm on which I now reside, lying on the Middleburg pike, 17 miles from Hustonville, containing about 340 Acres of land, known as one among the best grain and seed farms in the county. It is well planted with water, in a fine state of cultivation, and produces good all necessary outbuildings, two large barns, fencing in first-rate order; plenty of timber on and about 35 acres are in corn, about 45 acres in small grain and balance in grass. Also about 100 Acres of land, about 5 miles from Hustonville, in Hustonville & Hendersonville pike, about 51 Acres cleared, balance in timber. Would make a good little home. Also 130 acres of fine timber adjoining said farm, first lot of locust timber on it. Also about 1,200 Acres finely timbered land lying near the road from Rolling Fork to Liberty. It is a fine body of timber and the most of it very well located for cultivation. The above named tracts of timbered lands all lie in Casey county. I will sell any or all the above lands on reasonable terms, as I am determined to sell. Any one wishing to purchase would do well to give me a call. 247-47 J. J. DRYE, Hustonville.

"We, the undersigned citizens of Lincoln and Garrard counties, do hereby certify that we have had our wheat threshed by Robinson & Co.'s New Bonanza Grain and Field Seed Thresher and Engine, and we give great credit for the work it did for us. It threshed our wheat and separated it in good order, as we ever had, and we were able to get it done in less time than we ever had. The grain is clean and well separated. In conclusion, we will say to those that wish to buy a thresher, that they should buy Robinson & Co.'s New Bonanza Grain and Field Seed Thresher and Engine. It is a portable engine, revolving drum thresher, and has a full set of gears for all the latest styles of grain. It is built by Robinson & Co., Richmond, Ind. Signed: J. H. Taylor, G. F. Peacock, G. Buggies, Phaetons, Surreys, Carriages, Jersey and Open Spring Wagons, Village Carts, &c.

The largest stock ever in Stanford and the best to be found in Central Kentucky, embracing about twenty five different styles from the leading manufacturers in the United States. Persons contemplating buying a vehicle this Spring should select the same or place their orders at once; for at this season all manufacturers of first-class vehicles are invariably over-run with orders and if the vehicle wanted is not on hand, it will require from four to eight weeks to obtain it; four weeks being required to make, finish and dry a first-class job ready for shipment, under the most favorable circumstances.

All work sold by me will be found to be such as I represent them, unless I have been deceived myself, and in that event the purchaser will be fully indemnified. Call and examine my stock and I will do my best to please you in style, quality and price. You can get as good vehicles from me and at as reasonable prices as you can obtain anywhere else and get a guarantee on them, besides that is worthless to you when buying away from home. Respectfully,
